Vendor Associate Members are entitled to the same privileges of the Association as active members, except the right to vote at meetings or to serve as officers or as members of the Executive Committee. Associate members may be members of the Board of Directors if nominated and will receive all copies of newsletters and general correspondence from the Association.

All applications are "subject to approval" and BBAV retains the right to refuse membership to any individual who in their opinion is not acting in the best interests of the small lodging industry and does not promote the philosophy of the Bed & Breakfast Association of Virginia.

Vendor Associate Member Annual Dues: $100.00

Vendor Associate members receive our newsletters and may participate in any regional meetings of their choice. Associate members will receive a listing, e-mail and web link on the BBAV web site.
